Docket No. 03-00391

JOINT AGREED MOTION OF BELL SOUTH TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC., THE CONSUMER ADVOCATE DIVISION, AT&T COMMUNICATIONS OF THE SOUTH CENTRAL STATES, LLC AND CITIZENS COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY OF TENNESSEE, LLC TO DISPENSE WITH LIVE HEARING

BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth"), the Consumer Advocate Division of the Attorney General's Office ("Consumer Advocate"), AT&T Communications of the South Central States, LLC and Citizens Communications Company of Tennessee, LLC file this Joint Agreed Motion and request that the Hearing Officer adopt a revision in the procedural schedule for this matter. The parties respectfully show the Hearing Officer as follows:

BellSouth filed direct testimony in this docket on May 28, 2004. No other party has filed direct or rebuttal testimony, and the parties have agreed that no live evidentiary hearing is necessary in this matter. Instead, the parties propose that the direct testimony, as well as the discovery in this case, be submitted into the record and that the parties be permitted an opportunity to file briefs and present oral argument to address the appropriate relief to be granted by the TRA based on the record and to explain the legal bases for their proposals.

The parties suggest that BellSouth file a proposal outlining the relief it seeks regarding intraLATA toll by June 28, that all parties file briefs addressing the relief to be granted relating to intraLATA toll on July 16, 2004 (the date originally scheduled for post-hearing briefs and parties' proposals for a procedural schedule for PRI exemption) and that any party may seek the opportunity for presentation of oral argument to the panel after briefs are filed. The parties request that July 16 remain the date for filing the parties' proposals for procedural schedule regarding the proposed PRI exemption.

Respectfully submitted,

BELLSOUTH
